

WEEK 3 - God Calls Man (Old Testament)

Exodus 24:3:

When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all answered with one voice, "We will do everything that the LORD has told us"

CCC 2071:

A full explanation of the commandments of the Decalogue became necessary in the state of sin because the light of reason was obscured and the will had gone astray

Leviticus 20:26:

"To me, therefore, you shall be holy; for I, the LORD, am holy, and I have set you apart from other peoples to be my own"

John 15:19:

[Jesus speaking] "If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you"

Isaiah 55:6-7:

Seek the Lord while he may be found,
call upon him while he is near.

Let the wicked forsake their way,
and sinners their thoughts;
Let them turn to the LORD to find mercy;
to our God, who is generous in forgiving.

Leviticus 2:1-3:

When anyone brings a grain offering to the LORD, the offering must consist of bran flour. The offerer shall pour oil on it and put frankincense over it, and bring it to Aaron's sons, the priests. A priest shall take a handful of the bran flour and oil, together with all the frankincense, and shall burn it on the altar as a token of the offering,^[b] a sweet-smelling oblation to the LORD. The rest of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons, a most holy portion from the oblations to the LORD.
